

VI. B. WOMEN'S STUDIES

Women's Studies is an Institutionally Designated Option.

Exemplary Educational Objectives

1. Understand feminist perspective which reflects that women's experiences, ideas, and needs are valid in their own right;
2. Be able to explain the status of women in society, the origin and persistence of that status, and the means for effecting change;
3. Understand information from a variety of methodological sources including qualitative and quantitative knowledge sources;
4. Understand women-centered paradigms and feminist theoretical perspectives as analytical tools.
5. Understand social institutions, norms, and practices for their impact on the status and roles of women;
6. Understand women across time and cultures;
7. Understand the dynamics of race, ethnicity, social class, sexual orientation, age and disability.